

RESULT – INASL Election 2020

On behalf of INASL, we are pleased to announce the results for the INASL Elections 2020 which were held recently for the post of President Elect and two posts of Governing Council Members. We had received one nomination for the post of President Elect and seven nominations for two posts of GC Members. The elections were conducted by Dr Anil Arora (immediate past president), the other members of electional committee were Dr. Y.K Chawla, Dr. K. Narayanasamy and Dr. Vivek Saraswat. We thank all the electoral officers and enthusiastic participation by all INASL members for large number of votes cast this year. The following have been elected:

For President Elect

- 1. Prof. Shivaram Prasad Singh (Cuttack) – Unopposed

Governing Council Member

- 2. Dr Shalimar (New Delhi)
- 3. Dr Sunil Taneja (Chandigarh)

We congratulate & welcome the new President Elect and both the Governing Council Members and look forward to their active participation in the growth of the society. We request those who have not been elected to not feel discouraged from applying again in future INASL elections.

Thanks
